How to Turn a Magazine Into a BADGE OF HONOR

We're pleased to bring you the first-ever edition of Space Coast Real Producers.

This magazine is provided for free exclusively to the top 300 traditional real estate agents in Brevard County based on our best estimation of last year's sales volume. It's 100% free for agents, and there are no "pay-to-play" articles... Everyone covered is featured solely based on production and nominations from our community. If you'd like to someday tell your story in our publication, email us at Team@SpaceCoastRealProducers.com

If you're reading this, then CONGRATS!

Every year, we update our mailing list to include our (estimated) top 300 real estate agents in Brevard County from the previous year based on sales volume. You're receiving this publication for the first time because this is our inaugural edition, and you cracked the top 300 list for 2021, so congratulations!

Inside this edition, we've listed our top 300 list alphabetically (not ranked). If you'd like to know where we ranked you, text "RANK" to 321-221-5657 (you might need to text "START" first to opt-in) we've missed out on, or overlooked anything or anyone, feel free to email us at Team@SpaceCoastRealProducers.com.

This publication is being provided to you FREE OF CHARGE as a top producer in real estate -the cost of producing, printing, and mailing each newsletter is covered by the advertising partners. If you're ever in need of top-notch services, we hope you'll turn to our partner index for recommendations, as each has been thoroughly vetted and contributes significantly to help produce the Space Coast Real Producers platform. Our partners can be found in the index of this magazine.

My friends and I launched Real Producers over seven years ago in Indianapolis and have since spread to 125+ markets across the country. The team behind this publication has run Orlando Real Producers for 6+ years and hosted over 60 different events, both social and educational. The publisher behind our magazine is a consistent INC500 winner and donates $2M-$3M (1% of all profits) to fight human trafficking. That equates to saving approximately two people each time we add an advertising partner nationally.

What to Expect:

For Space Coast, we'll be mailing a monthly publication, plus hosting four private events a year, exclusively for the top 1% agents and simply to honor, celebrate, recognize, and connect you. These could be anything from a swanky cocktail party to a brewery takeover, a dinner boat cruise, a happy hour, a Mastermind event, and/or a formal awards gala.

The events and publications are designed to increase social connections between top REALTORS® and top affiliates so that the best of the best can grow their businesses together. It is our goal that the events create a culture where there is no "hard selling" but a culture of relationship-building on a more intimate level.

You can also make sure to follow Space Coast Real Producers On Facebook, so you don't miss out on anything!

Connecting With Our FB Group:

If you're new to our community, please join our group on Facebook. It's called "Brevard's Top 300 Agents (hosted by Space Coast Real Producers).". Here we share referrals, ideas, updates, and invitations to our exclusive top agent events.

Although our launch party is not finalized yet, please keep your eye out on emails, texts, social media, and the next publication for more details!

Welcome aboard, and hopefully, we'll see you at a future event!

Yours in Success,

Aaron Ludin

Owner, Space Coast Real Producers

7 IMPORTANT CONVERSATIONS

TO HAVE WITH A POTENTIAL
REAL ESTATE COACH BEFORE YOU HIRE

1. When Did You Last Sell Real Estate, How Long Did You Sell, and What Was Your Peak Production Year?

In general, coaches rarely can coach you past the point of their own success. While it CAN happen Agents may be frustrated being assigned to a coach who has not exceeded what they have. Many successful Real Estate Coaches are still active in the business today, if only to stay sharp.

2. What Formal Training or Accreditation Do You Have?

Many good Real Estate Coaches have no formal training or accreditation relying solely on their own experience for coaching. That said, the best are certified and/or accredited by an ICF approved Coaching Program that often takes 2-4 years of rigorous training to complete. Professional training provides higher-level skills and tools for your Coach to work with you on. If you are interviewing a Coaching Company with an unknown coach to be assigned later, be sure to ask if all Coaches have the same certifications. Ask how experienced your Coach is in terms of years of Coaching as well as number of clients.

3. What are the Full Details of Your Commitment on Your Coaching Contract?

Knowing in advance what your long term commitment is can greatly alleviate future problems. Ask what happens if your Coach is not working out, or if you have a medical or other emergency. Ask what happens if you go on that month-long tour of Italy. Read and understand all the details of your Contract and at what point it becomes Month to Month.

4. Who is Coaching YOU?

Discover your potential Coach's commitment to Coaching by finding out who is coaching them, how often, and for how long. Ask if they have had other Coaches in the past and how long they've been Coached, in total.

5. What is Included in my Contract?

Find out what services are included in your Coaching Contract. Some contracts may provide only for group calls or recordings. Others may provide 1-5 private calls per month solely, or in addition to group calls. Find out how long the sessions are for and what happens between them. Ask about email support, numbers tracking systems, courses, events and other additional services. Ask if there are other charges for any of these services.

6. May I Speak to some of your Current Clients Before Making a Decision?

The best Coaches will have clients who will gladly agree to talk to new potential clients about their experience, perhaps even one who is at or started at your current production level. Some of the best benefit from Coaching is the peer-to-peer interaction with other Agents who get the same Coaching you do... without necessarily competing with you in the same office. Ask for a Client to talk with in or near your timezone to be sure timezones are not an issue. An over-eager-to-get-you-to-sign salesperson may indicate you are going into an expensive long term agreement without fully knowing what you are getting.

7. Will There Be Opportunities For Being With Your Coach in Person?

Coaches range from having no Events, all the way up to giant 5000+ Agent Events. If having a chance to be with your Coach in person is important to you (and in an environment you can actually talk), find out if that is possible with your potential Coach first. Be sure to take notes in your Conversations leading to a Coaching Contract. Put those notes in writing to your potential Coach to be sure there are no miscommunications. If you are not able to talk to the Coach you will be working with before signing a contract, ask for a 30 day trial period. In the conversation, look for a good listener who is also taking notes and responding fully to your questions rather than simply using "objection handlers" with you.

Be sure you are clear about what you are looking for from a Coach so you are able to determine if Coaching is "successful". Are you looking for more transactions? More ease in your business? More time off? Less transactions but more profit? Team building coaching?

These answers will tell everything you need to know before investing in your next coach.

Mike and Donna Stott own and operate Your Coaching Matters, a real estate Coaching and Training company founded in 2009, coaching and training over 2000 of the Top Agents in North America. They have personally sold over 3000 homes and continue to operate a Real Estate Brokerage in NW Atlanta. Their average coaching client earned $422K/year in 2021 with top earners over $1M GCI per year. You can contact them at Info@YourCoachingMatters.com

Justyn Cole

VP OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Sorensen Moving and Storage

Sorensen Moving and Storage has been serving the Space Coast community for a staggering 66 years! During that time, they've evolved into the area's premier moving and storage company, sticking to its family roots while expanding its services to meet the needs of any client.

Originally founded by William Sorensen, the company is now run by William's son, Scott, and grandson, Chris. Five and a half years ago, Justyn Cole joined the team. As the Vice President of Business Development, he has helped take Sorensen Moving and Storage's service to the next level.

Finding His Niche

Five years ago, Justyn was working in worker's compensation insurance claims. "It was incredibly exciting," he jokes...

As he was looking to get out of claims, Justyn desired work that would allow him to truly serve his community. He ran into Chris and Scott, who he knew from growing up in Brevard, at a mutual friend's wedding, and they got to talking.

"I was looking to get out of what I was doing in insurance, and the Sorensen's were looking for a new salesperson," Justyn remembers. "Three weeks later, I was moving back to Orlando from Tampa to begin."

In the past five-plus years, Justyn has fallen in love with Sorensen Moving and Storage's quality service, community advocacy, and value-based approach. Today, he manages the residential sales team and handles his own book of business on the commercial side.

"I really enjoy the people I work with and the culture that Chris and Scott have created," Justyn says. "We are a medium-sized business with reach around the country and even internationally. Working hand in hand with ownership on a daily basis is much more attractive and rewarding than the Fortune 500 corporate route. I feel like I can see much more of a real impact that I make on a day-to-day basis."

"As cheesy as it may sound, I genuinely enjoy helping people through what can be one of the most stressful times of their lives—moving."

Sorensen Moving and Storage: Understanding Value

Sorensen Moving and Storage is more than just a full-service moving company. They are out to provide real value to their partners in real estate.

"We want to be a partner that real estate agents can confidently refer their clients to and trust that we can take care of them throughout the entire relocation process," Justyn says. "We like to partner with real estate agents who are quality-focused. By that, I mean agents who want their customers to be taken care of on the relocation side with a quality vendor. We look to partner with real estate agents and help their clients relocate as smoothly and easily as possible."

Whether it's across the street or across the country, Justyn and his team can quote a move. Before ever signing a contract to move, they will set up an in-home walk-through (or virtual walkthrough) to assess the move, create a relocation plan, and provide a free quote.

"We create a move plan to ensure that every facet of the move is accounted for and planned."

"A Rich History of Service"

WE HOPE TO ADD VALUE TO REAL ESTATE AGENTS BY MAKING LIFE EASIER FOR THEIR CLIENTS.

With ongoing concerns over COVID-19, Sorensen Moving and Storage offers a few virtual options to ensure ease and safety for their customers and partners, as well. They even provide agents with a small gift card as a thank you for referring them and integrating them into your REALTOR® referral program.

“We like to take care of those who take care of us. It’s a small way for us to say thank you,” Justyn says. “We hope to add value to real estate agents by making life easier for their clients. That’s the goal for everyone: repeat business, and we want to help make our partners look good for referring us.”

In Service: Giving Back to the Community

Sorensen Moving and Storage’s commitment to its community doesn’t stop at real estate agents and homeowners. They are committed to leveraging their role to help local organizations and those in need.

Sorensen Moving and Storage has a lasting culture of community support. Through the years, they’ve given back to local organizations through board membership, in-kind services, and financial contributions. Some of the organizations they support include Junior Achievement of the Space Coast, Move For Hunger, Children’s Hunger Project, Junior League of South Brevard, Handlebars for The Holidays, Feeding Children Everywhere, Space Coast Early Intervention, Gifts From the Heart, Second Harvest Food Bank, One Heart for Women and Children, Titusville YMCA, UCF Athletics, local chambers of commerce, and the Space CoastEconomic Development Commission.

Sorensen Moving and Storage is Melbourne and Orlando’s go-to resource for residential and commercial moving needs. Their main headquarters is at 950 W Eau Gallie Blvd., Melbourne, FL 32935

JACKIE GRIFFIN

A NEW VISION

Jackie Griffin's real estate career began with the vision to improve the services available in the industry. Over the past 19 years, she has achieved that dream and more. She has not only been able to offer clients the service they deserve, but as the broker and owner of Florida Lifestyle Realty, she's also helping agents get the support from their brokerage that she believes they are worthy of.

Jackie has elevated the real estate business by putting service, integrity, and creative problem-solving at the forefront, day after day, month after month, and year after year.

It Starts with a Vision

Before becoming a REALTOR®,

Jackie spent two decades in manufacturing and marketing. In the '80s and early '90s, she built a successful screen printing and embroidery business. She spent the next decade as the CEO of Griffin Thermal Products, a high-performance cooling systems manufacturing company.

In the early 2000s, Jackie became interested in real estate investing. She initially got licensed because she wanted a deeper understanding of real estate for her personal investments. Upon delving deeper into real estate, however, she had a realization.

"When I took the course in real estate, I learned that not everybody that sells real estate is really honest and open with sellers and buyers," she reflects.

Jackie first began to doubt whether she could sell real estate. She knew she had to do business with integrity and transparency. Then, she had another insight; the real estate industry needed someone like her.

"And so that got me into real estate sales."

Building A New Model

In 2003, Jackie began her real estate career. She rose through the ranks quickly, solidifying her stance as a top-producing agent. Along the way, her opinion of the industry shifted.

“YOU CAN ONLY
BE WHO YOU ARE. JUST BE YOURSELF, AND PEOPLE WILL LOVE YOU.”

She discovered that very few agents were egregiously dishonest, but many still struggled with integrity.

“Real estate is hard. It’s a hard business. It’s a hard business to make a living at, and so people get caught up in that. Then they start not being totally honest with people,” Jackie reflects.

Jackie had an idea. What if she could create systems that actually supported agents? What if she built a team of high-integrity, driven, full-time agents and provided them with the leads and support systems they needed?

From this vision, Florida Lifestyle Realty was founded in 2013.

“Most real estate companies — I worked for a few of them — I found out that there was no help at the office. These brokerages just put somebody like a secretary-type person in the front, and there’s nobody there to help you because everybody’s an independent contractor,” Jackie explains. “So I looked at that business model, and after selling for several years, I decided to get into my own business and created a team.”

“I wanted to make it easier for agents to make a living. I wanted to make it fun. I wanted only full-time agents that had hearts for other people.”

Florida Lifestyle Realty

Today, Florida Lifestyle Realty has 14 agents and six support staff; the 2:1 ratio is well above the industry norm.

“It makes it a lot of fun for people that work with us. We are all in it together. Nobody’s worried about not making a living. Everybody makes a wonderful living. We have agents that get to go on vacation for two weeks over in Europe and don’t have to take their phones or be worried about doing things. It’s handled.”

Jackie and her support staff vet and carefully select training material to bring to their agents. She often sends team members to events in other parts of the country. They bring back knowledge and wisdom to share with the rest of the team. She regularly holds team-building events to keep the culture flowing and morale high.

Jackie’s model has proven to be a wild success. In 2021, Florida Lifestyle Realty closed 359 transactions for nearly $130 million. Many may not realize it, but Jackie also continues to produce herself personally: she closed 58 homes for $24 million in 2021.

“For me, the most rewarding part is watching my agents grow and blossom and make an awesome living,” Jackie says. “Success to me is having a good life balance.”

For the Love of Real Estate

Outside real estate, Jackie enjoys camping, biking, playing pickleball, sewing, and traveling. She has three adult children; her daughter, Christina, is Florida Lifestyle Realty’s Director of Operations.

When Jackie started real estate 19 years ago, she never dreamed she would be where she is today. She is immensely grateful for the opportunities a career in real estate has afforded her.

“It has provided me with the opportunity to do everything I love, and I never expected that when I got into real estate. It allows me to coach people through selling a home and making tough decisions. It allows me to be outside ... It gives me an opportunity to see a lot of the area that I live in.”

As we closed our interview with Jackie, we asked her to share some wisdom she’s learned in her nearly two decades in real estate. Her advice is an apt expression of her values and vision.

“You can only be who you are. Just be yourself, and people will love you.”

Long after the closing is done...
Well after the buyers have moved in...
Years after living in the home...

When they start thinking about buying & selling...

Corinna

DANINGER exp Realty

► agents to watch

“DISCOVERING HER HAPPY PLACE”

In 2009, Corinna Daninger moved to Florida sight unseen. With two kids, a dog, and two cats in tow, she landed in Melbourne in the middle of a global recession. Corinna’s kids had lost their father two years prior, and as a single mom, she decided it was time to begin again.

“I didn’t know where I was going, but I knew it was time for a change,” she reflects.

Before moving to Florida, Corinna, a graduate of Villanova University, built a successful career in executive enterprise software sales. But her priorities shifted after moving to the Sunshine State. The software companies she interviewed with wanted her to cover seven to ten states, but Corinna was determined to stay local so she could be there for her children.

As she assessed her options, she struggled to find something that met her needs. She turned toward real estate sales but was unsure of the viability of a career in the industry in Brevard County.

“When I moved here in December of ‘09, the housing market had really hit hard. I had just moved here from Princeton, New Jersey, which was an hour between New York and Philly, and we had already been bouncing back from the housing market crisis,” Corinna reflects.

The situation in Florida was quite different than in the Northeast. The housing market and the economy as a whole were still in shambles.

“In Brevard County, not only did we have to contend with the housing market crisis, but NASA had huge layoffs. So many people were hurting financially. So many small businesses support the space initiatives and the people that worked there,” Corinna says. “This place was tumbleweeds for a very long time. I wasn’t sure if I even wanted to stay in Brevard County to sell real estate. There was one point when I knew I was going into real estate. I traveled all over Florida. I looked at Wellington and Jensen Beach, Boca, and some other big areas, and you know what I discovered? I discovered that Melbourne was freaking fantastic.”

Corinna discovered that Melbourne was a tight-knit community with amazing schools. The people are kind. The laid-back vibe felt like the right place to raise her kids. Although the real estate industry was struggling, she decided to give it a go. In 2012, Corinna was licensed, and in January 2013, she began her real estate career.

Don’t Be a Secret Agent

As it turned out, Corinna’s timing was impeccable. The start of her career coincided with the uptick in the local real estate market, and she quickly solidified herself as one of the area’s top agents.

Corinna has found success by leveraging her passion for serving others and her optimistic outlook. She’s outgoing and high-energy; she networks and gains clients just about anywhere.

“Early on, people told me, ‘You cannot be a secret agent,’ and I took it to heart ... Everywhere I turned, people were like, ‘You cannot be a secret agent.’ So I slapped two magnets on my car, but I went one more step and made them reflective at night. So if I was at Walmart shopping, I wanted everybody to know I was in the house. I’d stand in line and make friends and pass out business cards. I can’t go and get an oil change without picking up a customer. It’s just how I go find business,” Corinna explains.

“People ask me, ‘Where do you find your listings?’ I really don’t pay for leads. I find people, or people find me. I guess it’s a mutual attraction out there. I no longer have magnets on my car, but my yard signs are reflective, my commercial signs are ginormous, and my phone constantly rings inbound. I’m very blessed for that.”

Corinna has always leveraged technology and social media, and her background in high-tech executive sales has helped.

"I knew if I friended my clients, I would have a lot of repeat business," Corinna says. "They could not forget me. I was selling houses virtually with Skype long before Facebook live. Another REALTOR® told me about Periscope, and I jumped on that to do house tours and sell homes virtually. When Facebook came out, I quickly slid over ... [I have] a huge community on many social media."

Today, Corinna is a solo agent. She has sold hundreds of homes and has branched into commercial real estate and business brokerage. In 2021, she closed over 40 homes for $60 million in residential real estate, plus her sales in commercial real estate. She transitioned to eXp Realty in early 2022, the next step in the evolution of her business.

Giving Thanks

Corinna's real estate business has been a boon to her life. She arrived in Florida as a single mom looking for a change. Real estate has allowed her to send her kids to college, buy them cars, and travel the world.

"Real estate has afforded me [the chance to] do things and provide for my kids as an only living parent," Corinna says.

Today, Corinna's two children, Emma and Aaron, are both out of college. Now that she has more free time, she hopes to build a real estate group and travel more with her long-time boyfriend, Sergio. She's in the process of writing a book, is an avid gym-goer and enjoys real estate investing.

"My hobbies are selling, selling, selling, and selling," Corinna says with a laugh.

As Corinna reflects on her journey, she remembers just how lucky she is to be living in Melbourne and thriving in the real estate business. Each day, she steps outside her home, looks at the environment around her, and smiles.

"I love Brevard. We have the best beaches. We can step outside and watch the rockets go up. We have the cruise ships; you can go sit and watch the cruise ships and eat dinner at night. We have amazing parks and recreation. You can walk the beaches to watch some of the largest turtles use our beaches to nest their eggs, and later, if you [are] lucky, you can watch the eggs hatch, and the babies make their way into the ocean. Stand on the river bed and watch the dolphins or manatees swim by. There's something going on all the time ... If that is not enough, Orlando is an hour away. There are so many amazing things happening [here]."

Real estate has afforded me
[the chance to] do things and provide for my kids as an only living parent.

Our rankings may or may not include these agent’s sales within Volusia or Indian River Counties, and do not typically include any of these agent’s sales in other counties, off-market transactions, or commercial sales. It also may not account for discrepancies in new construction, vacant land, and/or partner and “team” sales. We do not imply anything about the quality of the agents included, or not included, on our 2022 report. We do not endorse or recommend any agent that may appear on the list.
